BEECHAM'S PILLS

WHY NOT STOP THAT ITCH? 10c Will Bring a Sample Direct From the D. D. Laboratories.

Is it worth 10 cents to you to stop that awful, awful agonizing itch?

If you are afflicted with skin disease, the kind that seems to haffle medical treatment, and leaves you wild with itch, we hope you will not fail to investigate a prescription which is now recommended by many of the best skin specialists, even in preference to their own prescriptions. It is the simple, soothing oil of wintergreen compound known as D. D. Prescription and sells at $1.00 a bottle. But a 10-cent sample bottle must convince you that the itch is instantly allayed by this prescription. Get a liberal sample bottle of the healing, soothing, external remedy, D. D. Prescription—and see!

We feel quite sure that before long you will be cured, and at any rate we know — KNOW POSITIVELY — that your itch will be allayed instantly, the minute that soothing liquid is applied to the skin. Write direct to D. D. Co. 112 Michigan St., Chicago, enclosing 10 cents for the sample bottle.

Walter McCullough did some fine work at the Grand theater Monday night. Sunday night's nervousness had entirely left him and he was equal to all the dramatic situations that the part of Stephen Ghent affords. "The Great Divide." as it is being presented by Walter McCullough, Blanehe Douglas and the capable company of the Grand players, is sure to draw capacity houses for the balance of the week. Every detail of this great western drama has been worked out, giving it a very splendid presentation. There will be mattness Wednesday and Saturday.

Every possible manifestation of appreciation was given the performers on the Orpheum bill Monday evening. The Big City quartette is repeating the tremendous success it made on its previous appearance in Salt Lake, and is forced at every performance to respond to encore after encore. Monday the quartette introduced a novel variation of "The Old Oaken Bucket" that convulsed the house.

No better acrobatic and gymnastic act than the one being presented at the Bungalow this week by Cordua and Maud can be seen anywhere. The advance sale of seats for "The Cray Musician" which opens the new Shubert theater Wednesday night, indicates that a capacity andience will mitteness the opening of this new playhouse. "The Gay Musician" is one of those lively comic operas that carries a laugh a minute and leaves von laughing when they say good-by. The company is under that well-known panager, John P. Slocum, who has brought so many good plays to Selt Lake City. The house will be in readiness on Wednesday evening. Owing to the demand for seats the box office was kept often last evening and will be open tonight until 10 o'clock. "The Man from Home" will be the second offering at the Simbert beginning Wednesday, November 24 with a special matiness on Thanksgiving day.

When the chiorus for "Lo." the new musical comedy by G. Henry, Franklin P. Adams and A. Baldwin Sloane, which the Harry Askin company will produce at the Salt Lake theater next Monday, was being engaged the fuest important point to be considered in the selection was one which has never before been thought of when a chorus was selected. As each girl came forward to the table where Mr. Askin's representative, the stage manager and the musical director were scated, the first tiling she was asked to do was to smile and show her teeth, and no girl who don't display two perfect rows of white, beautiful shining teeth was giren monthly a girl's features, next her voice, next her done, next her voice, next her done, are the four important points to be considered when she be applying for a position in a chorus. But the girls for "Lo" were selected from a different idea. Beautiful teeth was the first consideration, next their good looks next their voice, and then their apparent intelligence. "I don't care whether a girl has had experience or not." said Mr. Askin in discussing this matter. "In fact, I would much prefer she hadn't if she has a multiton and intelligence, for under Louis Morton, my dancing expect, any girl of Morton, m

John L. Kearney, that well-known comedian playing in "The Girl Question," which will be the attraction at the Colonial next week, is one of Salt Lake's favorite funnakers. Mr. Kearney has been seen here a number of times and is well remembered as the chief comedian in "The Mayor of Tokio." The part of the waiter in "The Girl Question" is said to fit Kearney to a nicety, and will place him away to the front in musical comedy comedians.

Mrs. Angie F. Newman, whose reputation as an author is international and whose knowledge of Mormonism and of Mormon history and policies is not surpassed by any other student of that now national problem, in a letter to the author of "LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF MORMONISM," gives the following highly-appreciated endorsement of the work:

"With unqualified pleasure I have read every line of 'LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF MORMONISM'-pleasure that so high an order of talent has been enlisted in a theme so evasive, so illusive, so treacherous, and withal so world-wide in its scope. You have wrought for the ages, for truth, for liberty. You have also treated the subject from a standpoint untouched by others, and have left the pages unmarred by bitterness."
